Petitioner seeks a Writ of Mandamus to declare the action of the respondents in summoning him and his family members to the police station and sending police constables to his house and threatening him and his family members as illegal and arbitrary.

2. Counter has been filed by the second respondent stating that on a complaint filed by one Kumari Jakkampudi Alekya alleging that the petitioner harassed her mentally and brought pressure on her to love him and that the petitioner used to call her over telephone and threaten with dire consequences if she fails to love him, a case in Cr.No.2 of 2007 under Sections 509 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 was registered on 05.01.2007 and investigation was taken up. After examining the witnesses the section of law has been altered from Sections 509 and 506 IPC to Sections 354 and 506 IPC. It is stated that in connection with the said case only the petitioner was examined and appropriate has been taken but not without registering any crime.

3. In view of the registration of the aforesaid case, it cannot be said that the personal life and liberty of the petitioner is interfered with.

The writ petition is accordingly dismissed. There shall be no order as to costs.
